

Michigan's Clean Slate Law

What is it?

The new law expands the eligibility for an expungement for some, non-violent conviction records. This expungement allows for felonies to have an easier time obtaining employment, professional licensure, and housing.

Presented by: Judge Matthew Stewart- 35th Circuit Court, Shiawassee County

🕒 Wednesday, October 20th from 7:00PM to 8:00PM

📍 Corunna Community Center in McCurdy Park

FAST FACTS:

- A felon whose records are set aside are 11% more likely to be employed, and 22% more likely to have an increase in income (University of Michigan)
- Nearly 1/3 of all Americans hold a criminal record that prevents them from employment, housing, and professional licensing (Safe & Just MI).
